An Outstanding Resident Leader is an individual residing in affordable housing in our region who has played an

Last year's property rehabilitation of Woodglen went above and beyond the typical property refresh. The 2017 rehab of this 40 year old property was focused on both improvements in the individual units and an overhaul of the major components of the property infrastructure.

Housing Project of the Year – New Construction

This award recognizes excellence in affordable housing developments completed in San Diego County between January 1, 2017 and December 31, 2017.

The Ruby Award went to Atmosphere from Wakeland Housing and Development Corporation. Wakeland Housing took a blighted site that had been vacant since 2004 and transformed it into a stunning example of community development. The project serves a diverse group of residents and includes 51 units of permanent supportive housing with wraparound services for formerly homeless individuals.
